WHY PEOPLE PLAY FANTASY SPORT ?

Manage Players

As a fantasy sports participant, you're invested in the squad and the sport as a whole. You use your sense of the sport (e.g., news or sports) for managing your fantasy team's decisions. And these behaviors have ramifications.

Involvement in Sport

You may not have previously considered watching less essential matches. However, you may now be playing with one or even more fantasy gamers. You can't attend a match without becoming emotionally engaged if you've had a fantasy squad.

The Prestige

It's all about the prestige in fantasy sports. You wish to battle against your friendly league opponents and defeat them (friends, colleagues, family). Fantasy sports are fundamentally social because of this dynamic.

An introducing broker has a direct working relationship with clients but does not directly execute trades. The actual trades are made by the broker with whom the introducing broker partners. The introducing broker brings clients in, provides consultation and services and receives a commission for every trade the broker makes on behalf of these clients.

- ✓ If the world of investing stimulates you, and if you want to make money without executing direct trades, you may find success as an INTRODUCING BROKER (IB). Like an affiliate marketer, an introducing broker partners with an actual brokerage.
- ✓ An IB is like an upgraded version of an affiliate. They offer more services and also make huge commissions.
